“ Myrna, what do you say at a time like this? "I am so sorry for your loss" seems such a trivial thing when compared to what your heart is feeling at this sudden loss of your precious son. I cannot begin to imagine the pain of your loss. And even what comfort you get from knowing that he is in a better place must be so outweighed by your sorrow and heavy heart. Know that I, as your friend and as a mother, grieve with you. I write this with tears streaming down my face so hard I can barely see what I am writing. Please know that I love you as I have since the first day I met you and that you and all of your family are in my thoughts and prayers. May God Bless you with strength, courage, and eventually, peace.

Margaret

“ It really is hard to face the reality of losing someone who I had to privilege of coaching --- Doug was an outstanding football player and a pleasure to be around - I my memory he will always be a 16 year old running around the field, having fun, with that unique laugh. Thinking about all of the family at this really hard time.
