“ Doyle was a wonderful man! I have many great memories of riding his bus. He would tell me all about my Grandpa Bridgeman when he drove the bus for Wonderview. I will always cherish those wonderful memories and all the times he would cheer me up and make me smile! May God be with each and everyone of you!

“ My mother was also born in Robertstown on February 15, 1925. The oldest of twins (Pauline and Pearline Jones), Pauline admired him enough to give me his name and told me all my life that he was a good man, and that she wanted me to be like him.
