“ I miss Doyle and am so glad I got to see him and Bobbie last Spring. I regret that I can't travel to Arkansas to be with family to offer my support and to just be there. Although, I am a stepbrother to Doyle, Doyle and the family considered me a brother always and I feel the same for him. Thank you Jim for including me in your Dad's obituary. Doyle was a person that treated everyone with respect and was always there for his family, his extended family and friends. The caliber of person he was is beyond reproach. He was an inspiration for all to emulate. Although he had a physical challenge, Polio, he never let it slow him down and he never complained. Some of his friends may not even know he had this physical challenge. He was as tough as a pine knot and persevered through life with faith, hope, love and patience. I love him and will miss him greatly. I am so glad he, Bobbie, Jim and Judy and were apart of my life. Thanks for the memories. Bob bobby Rainbolt
