“ Doyle and I spent many happy times at the Conway Senior Center until he became so ill that he could attend anymore. When I visited him at his apartment for the last time, he told me that he would not be returning to the Senior Center. I tried to encourage him by telling him that he would. I believe he knew that his time was near then. Doyle had good qualities and he was a true gentleman. He will truly be missed. My prayers are with his loved ones.
