

Edryl Lyle Wilson

June 2, 1932 - April 5, 2019

Edryl “Lyle” Wilson was born June 2, 1932 on Woolverton Mountain in Center Ridge, AR to Syble Holloway Wilson and Robert “Bob” Wilson. He was of the Missionary Baptist faith and was retired from Acxiom Corp. in Conway. Lyle is survived by his loving wife of sixty-three years, Bennie Catherine Wilson; daughter Sheila Beck and her husband Rick Beck; grandchildren Austin Beck and Madison Beck, all of Center Ridge. Mr. Wilson is also survived by his brother Floyd Guling of Clarksville, AR, three nieces and a nephew. Lyle was preceded in death by his parents, his sister Carolyn Wilson Adcock, granddaughter Anna Beck, father-in-law Marvin Flowers and mother-in-law Lela Flowers.

Corporal Lyle Wilson received an honorable discharge from the United States Army January 25, 1955 and then served ten years in the active reserves. He was an avid hunter and fisherman and many nights were spent with his hunting buddy, Doyle Shipp, chasing raccoons in northern Conway County. Not many people can say that their hunts often ended with a cold drink of milk from Mr. Clifton Clower’s milk jug that he kept cool in the creek before tying up the dogs outside of the church on Woolverton Mountain for service.

Lyle was saved and baptized the summer of 1945, at Mountain View Baptist Church on Woolverton Mountain where he later was ordained deacon on the fourth Sunday of June, 1950. Lyle served as deacon and Sunday School teacher at Mountain View and later at Pleasant Springs Missionary Baptist Church, Birdtown. He served the Lord in these capacities for the majority of his life and had an abiding love for Christ that he enjoyed sharing with everyone he met.

Lyle was welcomed by Our Lord on April 5, 2019 with the words, "Well done thou good and faithful servant". Lyle's life will be celebrated at 2:30 p.m.

Saturday, April 6, 2019 at Harris Chapel, with Bro. Doyle Glass officiating.

Visitation will be held an hour before the service at 1:30 p.m. Burial will be at Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Center Ridge by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton.
