“ I remember Eddy as well as his Mom, Billie Jean, and his sister from way back when i was a young boy. I am few years older than Eddy and remember him from sometimes being at his Moms little cafe on corner of N, Moose and E Vine st. A poplar place for kids from Central Ward School school to eat lunch and play a game of pinball. The older crowd loved Billie Jeans Stew and chili mix and burgers.

Eddy , as I remember , was always smiling and friendly to everyone. He had a hint of mischievousness about him as all of us kids did. He was a good kid and actually was a good mannered boy. Most Kids back then in Morrilton were overall pretty disciplined and worked. I know Eddy will be missed and leave lots of memories. My sympathy to his sister Barbara who i also knew and all the families.

“ Eddie was a “big deal” to so many of us growing up. For the most part he was the leader of what we called “The Church Street Gang”. He was the best at everything. He was coolest, funniest and most importantly to us all just a really, really good guy. Whenever our paths would cross later in life (far too seldom) I always realized that he was exactly the same. Still the coolest, funniest and most importantly just a really, really good guy. There’s a hole in our world that used to be Eddie. Thinking of and praying for all his wonderful family.

“ *I loved Eddie and all his humor! I've known him all my life and I don't believe I've ever heard anyone say a bad thing about him. I think that's quite an accomplishment in itself!
