“ I'll never forget Edward Lee coming on the radio and explaining how to deep fry a turkey. It was probably one of the first times anyone around here had heard of that (certainly the first time I had!). He brought us some turkey on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving that year and we feasted!

“ Delois and Boys,

I am thinking about you all, my heart is broken, I loved Ed and the special bond he and I had will always be treasured in my heart. He was full of spit and vinegar with a heart as big as the ocean. I know you all are suffering so much, and only time will heal the pain. I love you all so much, and I will sure miss my good friend and mentor.

“ Delois, Kent, Phil & family....

It is moments in life, like this, when words are simply not enough to express how much it saddens me to hear of Ed's passing. I hope you find some comfort & peace in these few lines.

Edward Lee was a true and devoted friend of my family. My late parents thought the world of him and you. If they were here today, they would tell you of the special place he and his family had in their hearts. We appreciated and cherished his friendship for many years.

Rest assure that the sadness of today will pass and be replaced with wonderful memories of your life together. With that thought in mind, I would like to share a memory that always comes to mind whenever I thought of Edward Lee...." it was late July 1981 just before I left for college....as always on Monday & Wednesday morning, Ed came over to my parent's store to write the grocery order....this particular time he came in with a "special gift for me"....he had a galvanized metal bucket that he had painted "green & gold" then had Arkansas Tech University stickers on the outside wall of the bucket...with that twinkle in his eyes, grinning ear to ear and laughing proudly proclaimed to everyone at the front of the store that this was "Eddie's Milk Bucket"....so I could go milk the cows each morning before class....at the COW COLLEGE !".....This "Ramblin' Wreck from Arkansas Tech" which was his favorite greeting for me back then....still has that "green & gold" bucket, plus many more wonderful memories of Edward Lee.

My prayers go out to you all.

With my Love,

Eddie
