“ Peggy and family, so sorry about your loss. I don't know if you remember me and my brother Jimmy Skipper or not. Our mother, Louise (Maxwell) Skipper Halbrook was a substitute teacher for your class for awhile. Must have been grade school because it was in that lower level of the building. I was pretty young at that time. I've always remembered you and your brother, Ralph. In fact, I think of you every time I drive by where you lived out near Robertstown.
