Together they owned and operated Greer's clothing store and worked together side by side until retirement. Before and after retirement, Henry and Elinor remained active in their community, volunteering at the Conway County Care Center, taking communion to the sick and serving as Eucharistic Ministers and Pre-Cana instructors at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Elinor was active in Adelaide club, the Sacred Heart Altar Society and the Angel Tree program. She was loved and respected by everyone who knew her and had a beautiful smile, gentle spirit and positive attitude.
