“ It's such a shame that we get so busy living that we don't keep in touch with family like we should!

I love Ann and all her family.

When I was a child Ann and I occasionally spent the night with each other and I was fascinated by their huge house. And I always envied her French Braids. Once when I stayed with her "Aunt" Dorothy braided my hair like Ann's; that's the only time I ever remember having my hair braided. She was a sweet and gentle person.

I'm so sorry she is gone, but so happy for her because we know she is in Heaven!
