“ Clayton and Kathy

I saw the obituary in the paper this morning. I said a prayer for both of you and Shawn. My next thought was Shannon would now have her Grandmother. That was a comforting thought to me. I know it is so hard to lose a parent, even when you know she is with our Lord. One day we will all be together again but until that time remember all the wonderful times you shared with her. I know she was a very saintly, Christian woman and loved her family. Take comfort in knowing she is walking with Jesus. If I can help in anyway please know I will. I love you both.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will always hold a special place in my heart for Ma Jones. I always had the best time visiting Ma and Pa with Shannon in Hattieville. Getting cokes and peanuts at the store and fishing at the pond with her will always be special memories. She always made me feel like family and it felt good. You are all in my prayers.
