

Ella Mae Robison

December 22, 2023 - December 25, 2025

Ella Mae Robison, "L", age 2 of Perryville, Arkansas, was called home on Thursday, December 25, 2025. She was born on December 22, 2023, in Conway, Arkansas, and in her short time on Earth, she filled countless hearts with immeasurable love and joy.

If you knew Ella, or even just met her once, you felt her light immediately. She was truly one of a kind, with a joyful spirit and a presence that could never be replaced. Lovingly known as "our sweet L", Ella loved deeply and without hesitation. She made sure everyone knew they were loved, always sealing it with a sweet kiss and a warm hug that could heal even the heaviest heart. Simply seeing her could brighten an entire day.

Ella's name was a perfect reflection of who she was. In English, Ella means beautiful fairy, and in Greek, it means bright light. She embodied both a precious angel on earth whose radiant light touched every life she encountered and whose glow will continue to shine from heaven.

Ella had a joyful, adventurous spirit. She lit up every room with her contagious smile and boundless energy, often running barefoot and embracing life with fearless happiness. She loved all animals, especially her horses: Lola and Luna, cherished her baby dolls, adored Minnie Mouse, and found her greatest comfort and joy in her mommy, daddy, and buboo. Above all, she loved her family and friends with a pure, wholehearted love that knew no limits.

Though her time with us was far too short, Ella fulfilled her purpose completely, teaching us how to love more deeply, live more freely, and find joy in the simplest moments. Life on Earth will never be the same without her, but heaven is brighter because she is there.

Ella is survived by her devoted parents, Abby and Seth Robison; her brother, Walker “buboo” Robison; her grammy and pappy, Mindy and Bobby Scott; her Papa and Mimi, Heath and Hollie Robison; her aunts, Morgan, Kaitlyn, Jenny, and Lilly Scott; her uncles, Bryce and Aydan Scott, Joshua and Saul Robison; her great-grandparents, Cindy and Lana; her godparents, Morgan Scott and Hunter West; along with many other family members and friends.

She was welcomed into heaven by her brother, Donald J. Robison; her great-grandmother, Nancy Scott; and her great-grandfather, Donald R. Robison.

Ella Mae will be forever loved, eternally missed, and always remembered as the beautiful angel and bright light she will always be.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m. Monday, January 5, 2026, at Corinth Landmark Missionary Baptist Church in Adona with Bro. Greg Dunham officiating. Burial will be at Fitch Cemetery in Casa. The family will receive friends one hour before the funeral. Pallbearers will be Ethan Marsh, Hunter West, Taylor Collier, and Seth Robison. Honorary Pallbearers will be Bobby Scott, Walker Robison, Bryce Scott, and Aydan Scott.
