My precious bonus dad. You didn't have to love us unconditionally but you stepped up and did! You not only helped take care of me in my younger days but also took care of your bonus grandson Ryan as he was your own & then later cherished my mini me Molly. I pray you know & felt how very much I love you & always will. I cherish our time spent together watching the family fish while you & I hung around on the swing watching them through the years with the most recent being Fathers Day. I cherish the memory of the big smile on your face (& thinking you even shed a tear) when I gave you a necklace saying "Dad" at the birthday dinner Molly & I took you out on this past October. I have saved three of your voicemails you left on my phone & when I am strong enough I will go listen to them & my heart will melt when you say, "Juli-ann.....this is DAD... call me back!!". Thank you for making my own daddy feel welcome when he was sick from cancer treatment. Your actions spoke louder than words ever could on the depth of love you had for us all! I love you Pop, always & forever!!!
