“ My uncle Beettie was so good to us as kids. Although he had no chilren of his own he would show up at our house out of the blue with pop and cookies and ice cream. He would stay a few days and play with us girls and even built us a tire swings which we played on for a very long time. My youngest son Jeremy was very found of him. They would talk for long periods of time about cars and trucks and how to fix them. We will miss him greatly.
