“ To grow up with someone is to know their triumphs and their losses. To grow up with someone is to see their journey unfold. To grow up with someone is to develop a lifelong bond. I'm so thankful to have grown up with with you.

Frank and I had a special lifelong bond together and we knew each other would always be there if one of us needing anything or help. Frank you know that I will always watch over Katrina, Jody, and your grandchildren and be there for them. See you in heaven and can not wait for that 'big hug'. Love always 'Your little sister'..
