“ In the early days of Frank Carl dating Sue Nell, his mom (my Aunt Florence) used to make him take his younger brother (Don) and I with them on dates. Frank Carl would stuff Don and I in the rumble seat and promise to buy us an ice cream cone if we would just sit there and be quiet. As you may have guessed, the ice cream cones were few and far between.

“ Frank was the reason I ended up working for Entergy. He later moved to Conway and was my supervisor. He was always on top of everything and was the sharpest boss I ever worked with. Above all he was a friend and a great person.

“ Earle, I was deeply sadden when you told me Dad had passed away. I cannot imagine the pain and sorrow you and your family must be feeling right now. I hope that I can offer you some comfort right now, but I know that nothing can take away the pain you are feeling during this difficult time. However I want you and your family to know you that you are always in my prayers and thoughts. I know my words do not mean much in the midst of the sorrow you are feeling right now, but they are all I can give you at the moment. Please accept my sincere condolences and Prayers.

“ For All My Dearest Cousins: My heart aches for all of you. Your dad and mom raised all of you right and kept your family ties close knit. I always admired that and still do. In my mind, your dad was a steel horse -- bigger than life itself, yet had the kindest and gentlest soul. He bounced me on his knee when I was a little toddler and helped teach me how to water ski when I was a pre-teen. The last time I saw him, just a few years ago, he hugged so big that my feet left the floor. I surely will miss him, but I take comfort in knowing he is part of my angel brigade in Heaven, along with my Grandma Jennings.

May God bless each and every one of you and your families, and may He give you strength, love, hope and courage during this difficult time and guide you through healing.

All of you are in my thoughts, prayers and in my heart. Please know that I love you -- more than I possibly can say.

*With much love,
Kathy (Jennings) Kindred*
