“ Uncle Frank was one of the kindness people I've ever met! When I needed someone the most he came to Russellville and helped me sort and sell items after my Husbands Death and gave me the support I needed so badly to take on that sad task! Always the kind, sometimes funny Strong Man! God is receiving a Handsome Angel! So sorry We Won't Be At Your Home Going Due To The COV 19 Virus but Our Hearts and Prayers are With You and Aunt Shirley and Family Always!

“ On a very hot a humid day, August 1994, we were here from Arizona, working on our ranch in Old Hickory. Thane, I and 2 of our daughter's were hot a tired. Then shows up this man with a friendly smile, a cold watermelon, a jug of cold water, a chainsaw and a heart of gold! We moved to Old Hickory in 2000 and we are so blessed to have Frank and Shirley as friends and neighbors. Frank took us under his wings and made us feel welcome and like part of the neighborhood. The world is a better place because of Frank Houston. So blessed to know we will get to spend eternity with that precious man. Love you, Frank!

“ A man of fewer words, that is until he filled the room with laughter, from his witty remarks or jokes. My best childhood memories seem to include Uncle Frank. He was such a great man to look up to. I have always cherished my memories of him, now I will cherish them even more. Love always ❤️

“ Quiet and gentle man. Kind, caring, and always loving. Funny how although he was the most discrete in a room full of people, his presence was the most powerful. My favorite memories of my Uncle Frank are from Lake Schaffer campground. Bonfires, hot dogs on a stick, corn on the cob (I won't say where we got the corn), and a GRANDE tire swing! Uncle Frank was always about us kids. If we were laughing, singing, giggling, and having fun then Uncle Frank was at rest. Uncle Frank you were my light of hope and help as a little girl. I carry a vision of the perfect man in my heart today and when I pray to God for my husband, I ask for a man like you. I love you so very much. May you rest eternally in His sweet peace~
Love you always,
Kimmy

“ One of my favorite childhood memories of uncle Frank was when we visited their farm and he drove us around to see all the animals. It was so fun and we had such a great time!

“ Uncle Frank was the one kindest thoughtful man I have known. I recall him painting my first car a 1953 Chevy in his garage. I was so proud of it and even today I believe it's the best paint job I have ever seen. He always treated me like a son and you will be missed by many. Rest In Peace.
