When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. I'm here if you want to talk.

“ Katherine, Gloria, Mary and the rest of the family,

I was saddened to learn of the death of Frank. He was always a man striving after God's heart. He showed his Christian attributes in the way he lived each day. I pray for peace to return to your lives and that through this tragedy you will all be strengthened. I, also pray for God's loving arms to encircle you and Frank's good works to be carried on by the family.

In Christ's love,

“ The Mayall Family,
I was in a state of shock when I heard Mr. Frank's obituary on the KVOM news this morning. I am so saddened about his passing. He was a dear friend whom I loved and cared about deeply. I will miss him at the Survivor Dinner and riding on the Gator at Relay. The consolation is that I know he is in Heaven, where there is no more pain and suffering. He will be missed by all here on Earth, but, one day akk those that love him will be reunited. I will pray for God to give you all strength during this sad time in your lives.

With love,
Linda and family
