“ Fred was such a good neighbor. We loved him and Betty when we lived in Morrilton and appreciated so much their friendship and caring for our dogs. When the neighborhood homes were being robbed, they watched ours just as they did their own, surely keeping our end of the cove safe. He always spoke so lovingly, although in few words, of his children and grandchildren. Fred was a good man.

“ He reminds me of dad so much. Such a sad loss. I remember when I was a little kid, and Freddy was in the Navy. He'd stay with our family for a few weeks. My brother and I would follow him around like two little puppies. Talk about hero-worship... Going to miss him.

“ There are no words to take away the pain. When the sting of death's pain fades away, the warm loving memories of your Dad will be there waiting on you. Then you know, you will carry them in your heart forever. Please let Jeff and I know if we can do anything at all for you. We love you and are here for you.

“ This is Tammy Sturgeon. I was your dad's housekeeper, up until he passed away. The last time I saw him was January 4th, when I last cleaned his house. I would have been at his house again the first part of February. I just heard the terrible news this weekend, (January 20th). I have been real sick for the last 8 days, and haven't been keeping up with the local news. I would like to take this moment to tell his son and daughter, as well as his grandchildren, that my husband, (Charles), and I are deeply saddened, and feel such pain for ya'll. We will pray for you guys during this awful time. May God bless each of you.
