“ Mr. Fred was the Best neighbor you could ever have. He was outgoing and so friendly to all in the neighborhood. You looked forward to the opportunity to speak with him. He looked out for his neighbors and was not afraid to offer assistance. Mr. Fred rescued Hitler from me after I had rescued him from a river bluff in South Carolina. One of my dogs was not being cat friendly at all. I didn't realize that until Hitler learned to come in the doggy door. Hitler thought he had gone to heaven when he went home to Mr. Fred. Went from totally outside cat to totally inside cat. Mr. Fred enjoyed Hitler.

We miss Mr. Fred's presence in the neighborhood. One of the finest Gentleman I have known. God Bless his family in this time. Mr. Fred is in heaven waiting on our seeing him again.
