“ He was Uncle Buddy to me and I share the same middle name of Oben (David Oben Samons). Uncle Buddy's Dad (my Pa-Paw) would call me George and he had a squirrel dog named George. So Pa-Paw (Ora Oben) would let me use Uncle Buddys old 22 rifle used by him when young and it had a screw for the front sight. I could not hit anything with it. I would later be the best shooter on Mills High Army ROTC Rifle Team. Pa-Paw would call out Hey George! Me and the dog wasn't sure who he was talking to since he called us both George. Uncle Buddy's sister Zelma was my mother and I still talk to Gerald Wayne Crowell who is Geraldine's son (my cousin). My whole family is buried at May Cemetery. I have Uncle Buddy's Korean War pictures and negatives (hope I can find them) from his camera he had there if anyone is interested Face Book David Samons (Scat Pack) send a message.
