“ Aunt Sue, Jack, Paula, Susie and your families,
I'm so very sorry to hear about the passing of my dear Uncle Shelby, and your husband and father, respectively. Uncle Shelby will be remembered by me for his kindness towards my grandmother (his mother) so many years ago. I remember when I would visit out there, and Shelby would often stop in during his lunch hour to visit Grandma and check in on her--and he did so much work for her so that she could live independently.
I'll also remember what a creative man he was with his numerous interests and hobbies, and his interesting stories--and that awesome cabin he built log by log. I still have some old arrowheads he gave me from his collection and cherish them.
I'm sorry I wasn't able to get out there over the years.
I love you, and you are all in my prayers.
Debbie

“ Paula, My memory is most pleasant reference your father. The day I came to pick you up for an airplane ride he choose to gently but firmly remind me that I was not the world's greatest pilot. Furthumore he reminded me I must take extreme care and not do anything foolish with you on board. He could have, with all rights, chosen a different approach given his knowledge of my past transgressions. A good man and I am glad he is at rest.
