“ I met Ms. Georgia during one of my trips to Center Ridge to visit my sister, Joyce Brockway. Ms. Georgia was true southern belle. I so enjoyed her stories about the life she had lived, and the love for her family and friends. I am a better person having spent just a few hours with this wonderful woman of God and dear friend of my sister, Joyce. May you each take comfort in knowing that Ms. Georgia is at home with Jesus and celebrating with the angels.

“ Georgia was the most elegant, classiest lady I ever met. There are just not enough words to describe what a special person this lady was to our family. She and Ferrell will always be remembered and memories treasured in our hearts.
