“ I would like to tell you how very Special your Mother was in my Life and how very much I loved her. I thank you for allowing me to be a part of her final days as hard as they were for all of us,it truly was a Blessing and Memories that I will Forever hold dear to my Heart. I will always remember the love that she showed me and how I was always just another one of her girls. I am so grateful for having her as my very Special other Mother and thank you both for sharing her with me.

May God Bless your Family now and Always. We love you and are here for you.
