

Glen Wilkins

August 30, 1944 - October 11, 2018

It is with a deep and heavy sadness that we announce the death of Glen Wilkins, of Perryville, Arkansas, who passed away at the age of 74, on October 11, 2018. Glen was born in Little Rock on August 30, 1944, and spent the last 25 years making his home in Perry County. He was a skilled sheet metal craftsman, whose reputation as “Mr. Fix-It” was overshadowed only by his servant’s heart. Glen was a devoted follower of Christ, and a member of Temple Missionary Baptist Church. A perfect day for Glen included steaks on the grill, the Razorbacks on TV, and the wild laughter of his six beloved grandchildren.

Glen was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his bride of 37 years, Gina (McDonald) Wilkins; his sons, Alan Wilkins and Brian Henley; his daughters, Alison (Wilkins) Knight and Marie (Henley) Shapley; his son-in-laws, Dillon Knight and Jeremy Shapley; his grandchildren, Rocky, Lou, Sam, Ezra, Lane and Ollie; and his siblings, Faydene Gray, Mike Wilkins, and Garry Wilkins.

The visitation for family and friends will be held at Temple Missionary Baptist Church in Perryville, Arkansas with Bro. Gordon Morgan officiating on Monday, October 15, 2018 at 11am, with the funeral service at 12pm. Burial will follow at Smyer’s Cemetery. Arrangements are by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton.
