“ i send deepest sympathy to Gracies loved ones at this time of loss. May you find comfort in the words of the bible "He will swallow up death forever and certainly we the tears from all faces"(Isaiah25:8). The wonderful hope of the ressurection gives hope and strength for a better day when we will all be reunited forever with our dear ones.

“ I will not forget Gracie in our bible study at College Squae, as she would read scripture every week from her very little Bible. She must have touched many lives as she lived, wonderful lady.

“ Garry and I are so sorry for your loss. I tried calling Gracie a while back but her phone was disconnected. Dad lives with me and has alzheimers. I have pictures out in the family room of your family and I find him looking at them a lot. Gracie and T.L were very special to him. Please let me know what happened to our wonderful Gracie. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Love, Sue and GarryG
