“ Once when my husband Bryant Jones and I took our oldest child to visit Hal at the farm he couldn't understand what she was saying. It didn't help that she had a lisp while she was trying to tell him her name. So, he just called her pretty girl. After that anytime he saw myself and my husband he always asked where she was. Such a sweet soul. Even if I only knew him a short while I'm blessed to have met him. I pray for his loved ones and friends that will miss him.

“ I loved our talks of food and recipes when he would come in to OIU. I considered him a friend. I will truly miss seeing him weekly. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. God bless each of you in this time of sadness.

“ Hal was a fount on history for me. He told me many stories of Plumerville and our home in Plumerville. It was always a joy to hear the stories of when he was a boy and the things he did around what will always be home. Hal will be missed by many people, I'm sure more than he ever knew that he touched their lives.

“ Hal Walker, what can I say. The man had a great wealth of knowledge that he was always willing to share with the younger generations. He loved his family, and friends hard. I'll cherish all the memories we shared my friend. Low Down! Walker family, I hope you find peace knowing he is in better hands now. Love you all.
