

Halagean "Jean" Holyfield Martin

February 6, 1928 - March 2, 2025

Halagean "Jean" Holyfield Martin, of Morrilton, at the amazing age of 97 woke up in Heaven with her Lord and Savior on Sunday, March 2, 2025. She was born in Martinville, Arkansas on February 6, 1928 to Walter B Holyfield, Sr. and Lillian Pairlee Williams Holyfield.

She was retired from Levi Strauss. She was a faithful member of Calvary Baptist Church for 34 years. She loved working in her yard, watching old westerns and her soap operas - "The Bold and the Beautiful" and "The Young and the Restless". She had a love for reading and would always have a book in her hand. She enjoyed watching Fox News and was a strong Trump supporter and loved to argue politics.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her five siblings: Walter B Holyfield, Jr., Marvel Stell, Ruth Lee Victor, Edna Earl Picklesimer and Lela Cato.

She is survived by her son, Terry (Karen) Martin of Oppelo, Her granddaughter, Tori (Dustin) Sims of Oppelo, and two great granddaughters, Chloe Kate and Keeley Adaline Sims also of Oppelo. Her nephews, Dicky Cato of Quitman, Lenny Cato of Pottsville, and George Picklesimer of Branson, MO. and one niece, Sherry Tuttle of Pottsville. And her best friend and companion, a rescue dog named Pepper who would protect her at all costs.

A special thank you to CHI St Vincent Morrilton for the exceptional and compassionate care they gave Jean during her illness.

A memorial service will be held at Calvary Baptist Church in Morriton on Friday, March 7th at 11:00 a.m. with Bro. Scott McDonald officiating. Private burial will be at a later date at Wolf Cemetery in Oppelo. The family will be receiving friends at Jean's home in Morrilton.
