“ So sorry we couldn't make it to the funeral today, but I wanted to make sure you knew we were thinking of him and praying for him. I always had fond memories of Harold for driving his tractor up and down the road to the chicken houses. He always had a wave for us as he drove by. Probably not as fond was the sound of him on his tractor making hay. The kuh chuk, kuh chuk, kuh chuk sound of his square baler as we walked home from school was never pleasant because we knew what was coming next... Wishing you the best today as you reflect back on his life and what he meant to all of us.

Love,
