“ I will always remember Hayden digging in Lori's desk drawer before school. He was always finding some kind of treasure, while he shoveled his last bite of breakfast. "one more minute Oma"..
Every afternoon when Hayden was walking to the bus, he would stop at the end of the hall and yell, "Bye Oma, Hug!!!"..
Im sure glad I had the opportunity to have a glimpse of heaven through Hayden.
Peace and comfort to you, love you all... Jenny

“ I am so very sorry but have no words that can make Hayden's death any easier. Be assured that you and Hayden will be reunited in Heaven---eternally. This is one of those times when God must do for you what you can not do for yourselves. May he wrap his loving arms around all of you and hold you tightly, provide you with mercy, strength, and peace for as long as it takes for you to work through your grief. Psalm 34:18 tells us that God is close to the brokenhearted and those crushed in spirit. I, as well as my family, love you all. Barbara Delk

“ My favorite Memory of Hayden is his Infectious Smile. He would buzz in the Hollis Country Store with his shorts and rubber boots ready for the day ahead. He always had big plans for the day. First things first he had to check out the Toy Rack and then fill his little brown sack with Super Bubble. It is the simple things in this life that make children happy and if he was spending time with his Grandparents he was Happy. My prayer is peace for the entire family.

“ Our prayers are with you! One day you will join him in Heaven, and he will introduce you to everyone. He's with God, Walking with Jesus, and talking to the saints who have gone on before. Heaven Now that I'm in Heaven, Lordand life is just a dreamI don't want to hang aroundeating strawberries and cream.I'm really quite an active childand I don't need to restI'll just play and do the thingsYou know I like the best.I'll play ball in Heaven, LordWith my halo on my headI'll run around the playing fieldor use my wings instead.I'll pick the players on my team and when we win the gameI'll make the Heaven's Hall of FameEveryone will know my name.I'll fish the streams and rivers, Lordand lure big fish my way.You know I'll put them back again to catch another day.I'll sail the seas and see the landsthe mountains and the plainsI'll fly the skies with open eyes above the clouds and rain.I'll even practice all the thingsan angel has to do but mommy know my favorite thing is watching over you.
