“ Our deepest condolences to the White family. I've heard many stories of how wonderful a mother Mrs. Hazel was. She will be greatly missed, especially by her "little boy", Jim. May this beautiful lady rest in peace.

“ It's still hard to believe miss Hazel is gone. She lived a long time and made an impact on so many people's lives. My second mom, who I loved so much! My heart is saddened but I know she is rejoicing in heaven. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all and we love you!

“ My condolences to your family. My mother, Ida Gardner Beecham and Hazel have been friends since they were very young. Mom saw Hazel 2 years ago and it was so precious. They hugged and cried when they saw each other. I'm sorry she is gone. I have good memories as well. Such a sweet lady who liked to laugh. I will let mom know that Hazel will be waiting on her in Heaven. God bless you all.

“ My deepest sympathy to you all! I do a weekly column for the Headlight, and I just finished this week's, which started out about your mom, but then my "Memory Lane" kind of transferred around to remembering growing up next door to "the White boys." O, the memories! Those were the good old days??? Yes, I guess they were. Again, my prayers and sympathy. She was a great lady to the end, and Perry will miss her!!!
