“ I loved how Uncle Henry's eyes twinkled when he smiled at us kids. And he told corny jokes. And he was so kind to my mother, Margaret.

“ Elinor & Ginny, I could write page after page about Henry, known as the Man to me. He was a wonderful person and mentor to me. Over 48 years of memories that I will always have in my heart. Always hear his laughter see his warm smile, and remember his love for his family. It was his greatest accomplishment, next to fishing. He has been reeled into his new home and how the fish are biting now. Know in your hearts we all will see him again. I was blessed to have known him ! Love, Angie

“ I spent a lot of my childhood in Greer's either shopping for my clothes or waiting on my mother, Judy, to shop. My sister, Lynn, and I always had so much fun in the store! Greer's was Mr. Henry! I can't think about that store or Henry without smiling! It saddens me that my children don't have these same experiences of shopping downtown for school clothes! I am share your grief in the loss of Mr. Henry Rohlman. May God give you peace.
