“ To Jean and Jan, we are very sorry for your loss. I have very fond memories of Uncle Hershel and my Dad sitting on our Grandmother's back porch by the well visiting for hours on end. The easy going nature of both was a treat to be around. If everyone had the outlook on life as those two, it would be a kinder place. Their relationship and respect for each other was something I will never forget. The whole family, including Aunt Faye and Aunt Alma, were just a joy to be near. I hope someday to be that well remembered.

“ *To the Robinson Family,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Hershel was my mother, Gail Craig's uncle, and my grandmother, Alma Whitfield's brother. I would go with them to visit Hershel and very much enjoyed being in his company. He told us great stories about him and my grandma growing up in Casa and stories about Ruby. I will certainly miss him. You are all in my thoughts.
