“ Dr. Biggs would make the trip to Jones Restaurant south of Perryville every Sunday to eat dinner and take one home to his son if Paul was at home. I was always afraid for him driving but he always made it home. When he would be visiting Paul in the nursing home, if I was there, I would make sure he had a wheelchair to get around and soon me and Paul would be traveling together to the lobby or dining room, visiting with people. When he became a patient there, it was the same until he couldn't do it anymore. He was friendly, liked to talk, and always appreciated other people's kindness. He will be sorely missed.

“ So sorry for your loss. Wayne was a great person as a High School Student. He was very smart and fun to be with. I was in the Band with him and other classes in High School. He was thought of as a BRAIN. I have fond memories of him as a classmate and a friend.

“ Charlotte & Paul Wayne:He pulled my first tooth (age 6). Relieved sooooo much pain! He was a great friend, a great neighbor, a great dentist, a textbook Elder & Christian. He was a great advisor, mentor, community leader, & great at LITERALLY ANYTHING he endeavored.I never knew he was a banjo picker, I wish I had for he is one person who could have taught me how to play. I recall the days when he would take Charlotte & I to Reynolds School, (my 1st & 2nd grade), & Paul Wayne to Kindergarten, in his small sports car, it became a running joke that Paul Wayne or I, whichever was sitting between the seats, would ALWAYS bump our head at a certain spot topping the hill by the old St. Anthony's Hospital on the downhill side. Some reason it never occurred when climbing the hill. We always looked forward to that spot, for the other one as the "victim". It was like being in an episode of our favorite TV show. "The 3 Stooges" on the "Captain KARK Show" (KARK-TV, Channel 4 Little Rock). It was a laugh a second riding in that little sports car. Grandma Biggs had the big Cadillac & Miz Phoebe had the big station wagon; but, highlight of those 2 years, going to school was Dr. Wayne's little sports car & Paul Wayne & me bumping our heads on the way. Little boys have a different sense of fun. I am greatly saddened at Dr. Wayne Biggs passing & shall always miss him, his encouragement, his sense of humor, & his professionalism & leadership in the Profession of Dental Medical Care.Randy O.
