ME

“ I have fond memories of spending time with Uncle John Pete and his late-wife, Ann. When I was 7-years-old, I flew with Ann and her grandson, Michael, from Dallas to Little Rock to spend time with Ann and John, and my cousins. During that week, John drove us (me, Ann and Michael), to the local shake shack to order shakes after a fun-filled day spent at Ann's shop. That same week, Uncle John drove me to Petit Jean Mountain (during a harsh flood-producing thunderstorm), to watch Ann in action as she orchestrated the wedding and reception for a young bride and her groom. I'll remember Uncle John as a humorous man who always brought a smile to my face, if only because he had a million dollar smile that was filled of joy, sincerity and good will. Perhaps what I liked most about Uncle John is that he never shied away from letting his family members know that he appreciated them, and that he truly wanted the best for all of us. I miss him dearly, but am glad that he's with Ann and all of his friends and family members who passed before him.
