“ Kennard, Kenny, Debbie and Sandy,

So sorry to read the obit of your's mom's passing. She was a great person. I remember many times growing up and spending the night at your house, laughing with your parents. Usually teen agers didn't like hanging out with the parents, but Ina and Kennard were fun to be around. I remember drinking the hot Dr. Pepper and Lemon on cold winter nights. I know she will be deeply missed. Love and prayers to you all. Jeris

“ Mrs. Anderson was a wonderful lady. I enjoyed seeing her at the clinic while getting her blood drawn. She would always give me a smile, even though I knew she felt bad. She was a trooper and a great mom to have such good children. God bless you on your loss.

“ Debbie and family,

I'm sorry for your loss. I didn't know Mrs. Anderson except for a short time while she was a patient at UAMS. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Just remember that she is in a better place and not suffering anymore.
