“ I remember Jim as a young man, well liked by everyone. He was a willing helper in anything you asked of him. I have not seen him since the late 70's. I can only hope that the years between then and now were filled with happiness and joy. A family of one;s own can bring on those things. I am sorry for your loss and will pray for you all and your well being. I would like to hear from Dewey, and Warren, please.
