“ I served at Faulkner Co. S.O. with Dennis. I think I recall Ed being at Dennis' funeral when we escorted Dennis' casket from McNutt's Conway to Heber Springs for burial. My how time flies since Dennis, aka "Bumper Morgan" & I met at SCA/UCA, then on to FCSO, then him to Heber as Jerry's Chief & me to the State Health Dept. at Heber. Ed was still in Jr. High then. He was so young & I haven't heard what happened. I posted a salute on my Facebook. I just can't understand why a young man has to be taken from us when you kids need him & me, now handicapped with no kids, is left here. If I can be of help or talk or lend an ear, please get in contact via my office 501-679-4500. I am greatly saddened as are you kids, even though I didn't know Ed that well, only a time or two visiting. s/Randy O. Bowling Captain (retired) Faulkner Co. S.O. Ass't. Fire Chief (ret'd.)
