“ James I'm going to miss seeing you on that tractor or lawn mower ridding down to shop to get me lined out on things. I thank God for the last 15 years or so. My God have mercy and love on the family. P.s. Don't you turn any of those fish back..

“ I was overwhelmed when I read of James' passing. Some things around here you hear as soon as it happens and then some things I don't know until the newspaper comes out. That is how I learned of your loss and I hope and pray that you all already know how much James meant to all of my family. Daddy considered him one of his best friends and that was not an easily filled position. They were old school mechanics and they stuck, that is a strong bond. I've been stung by wasp in the ground 100 times out in that field behind the shop while getting parts for daddy. I've sit up at that shop finding things for the kids to do while they worked on a vehicle or just sat around talking. There is no doubt he will be missed by so many. We will be keeping you all in our prayers! Jennifer Evans, Anthony Cambiano and Gunner Gilliam
