“ Always looked forward to Uncle Jim and Auntie Gladys coming home to Braddock, then out to our farm. The boys (Guy, Mitch and Scott) got to help milk cows and feed calves, chase chickens, drive gravel roads and enjoy the open range. At first I was afraid of Uncle Jim but once I got to know him and visit with him it was like talking with my Dad and Uncle Hubert. Prayers to all of you and a special blessings to my beautiful Auntie Gladys!

“ Mr. Mock was more than a friend. He was like a father to me and treated me as one of his own children. There are so many memories.....and I always listened to his advice. His wit and wisdom helped shape my life. Rest in peace sir, rest in peace. Cindy and my prayers are with Mrs. Mock and family. Kevin Reynolds, Cindy Wiley.
