“ It is hard to express the dept of the sorrow we feel for the loss of Gerald. For a number of years we have considered it a special privilege to visit with Gerald and Dorothy. We were so saddened when it became necessary for Dorothy to go to the nursing home but we are glad she has had the care she receives in the home. Gerald could not tolerate not being by her side and we admired him for that. Gerald probably kept me (Cleo) and him from getting into more trouble than we did while growing up. We spent every moment our parents would allow together just finding things to do that would amuse a couple of kids. One of my fondest pictures is of me and him at about eleven or twelve years old out together on a Sunday afternoon.

Lean upon our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for the love and comfort he has for all of us. Never doubt that he will not give us more burden than we can bear. Thank him as we have for giving us the privilege of knowing and loving Gerald. God Bless and keep all of you.

Love, Cleo (Uncle) and Edith
