“ I've known Rick and worked with him for almost 13 years now and have a funny story.I became team leader in Fine Drawing April of 2010 and Rick was straight day supervisor!1 day we needed to switch a pump in the lube room and it would'nt prime so Daron had me take a cap off of 1 of the pumps and the pressure behind it made it blow up in my face.I could'nt see a thing at all and i was in a pit under ground,but Rick talked me out to the ladder and helped me out.He then got me to the wash station pulled the valve and i started washing the sludge off.After awhile Rick said hey man are you ok can you see I said yeah im getting better.. He said good I bet you wont do that again will you and started laughing since I was ok and not hurt I could'nt help but laugh myself.Rick I am honored to have been able to be a team leader under you even for only a year,you helped me alot and gave me alot of advice!!! Thank You Rick!Your friend Homer
