“ Here's a picture of one of our many fun times together with friends. Looks like a road-trip, which we loved! I will miss you, dear friend, even though we've been separated by half a continent since I moved to Oregon. Love you so much! Bev

I couldn't believe that James had passed. I considered him my friend, even though it had been a year since I last spoke with him. He was a kind and sweet person, with a big heart. My condolences and Prayers are with his family and the others that loved him too.
