“ *Thinking about you again, as I so often do. Wishing I could turn back time.
Nothing in life prepares us for losing someone special, someone we love.
Nothing. Time passes but the hole in your heart never goes away.
I miss you!*

“ Just wanted to say, I think of you so often and wish you were here to enjoy more of your family and friends who miss you daily. Never will you leave my heart or thoughts. Love, Dianne

“ It's been over 3 years since you left this world.....some days it seems like only yesterday that I enjoyed looking into your beautiful brown eyes while sharing a hug or kiss after dinner... Some days it seems like a lifetime ago. Everyone keeps telling me that things will get better as time goes by. I'd have to disagree. One thing is certain. I'll miss and love you every day for the rest of my life. I do find joy, comfort, and peace when I look into my son's beautiful brown eyes. He misses you too, Pat. What a shame you won't get to see him grow up.....

“ Six years has crept by without you. You'd be so proud of Marilee. She's happily married and tiny. Did I mention, she's finally happy?!? I'm so proud for her. She seems to have finally gotten it right. Zach is on his way to growing as tall as you. He'll be 14 next month and he's already in a size 13 men's shoe. Caught up to your big old feet already. Plus, he's 6'2" tall. Just 1" away. I think he may pass you soon. I told you he'd be bigger than either one of us before he was 16. I had no idea it would be so soon though. I had to take him to the eye doctor last month and get him some glasses. He likes them almost as much as you did.....not at all. He's not up for trying conacts yet. Perhaps, later. We miss you every day and wish you were still physically here. You'll always live in our hearts, but a hug or kiss once in a while would certainly be great. I'll always love you, Pat T.

“ Dear Taylor family,
I was so saddened to learn of Pat's untimely death. I had the pleasure of working with Pat on almost a daily basis when he was with Schering Plough. He was instrumental in helping so many patients get medications they needed when they did not have the financial means to afford them. I considered him a valued friend and an asset to humanity. He was a kind, compassionate, wonderful person and will be missed by many.

“ Pat was a great friend in Junior & High School. He loved his family. Such a kindheart man. I talked to him often at St. Vincent's. He inspired me just smiling and loving life. I will miss him a lot. May God Bless the family - especially his parents, sister, and nephew. He cared so much for you and talked of you often.

“ I was a co worker with Pat at Schering and was always amazed at how bright and successful Pat was year after year. He always had a tremendous work ethic and never settled for an average performance. Pat also did his best to take care of his family. I admired him for his unselfish devotion to them. Pat was a friend to many and his passing is truly a loss for us all. My family and I cannot express our sorrow for his immediate family.
God Bless you.

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. When I moved to Arkansas and knew no-one...you were there for me. And though years have passed, the gratitude I felt in my heart for you, the joy we shared - I carry in my heart always. You were my cousin, and more than that...my friend.
