“ I remember when I was a boy around 8 I believe,uncle Jim took Bronc and I on horse back riding up behind horse barn on Hey 10. We rode for quite a while. I remember we had to cross some creeks. And he would go first and watch us as we crossed. After a few crossings. I remember him smiling at me and telling me that he liked the way I sit a horse. He made me very proud to be with him and Bronc that day. He and some of my other uncles helped mold who I am today, and for that my hat is off to you Uncle Jim. Your memories will befor eitche in my heart

“ The best traveling buddy a girl ever had. We spent many miles together on the road to the sales. Loved hearing him "sing for his supper" when Gramps would tell the waitresses he was a famous singer and he'd break into his infamous Yippee KiYi Yay! There will be lots of tall tales told the next few days/months/years that will include him in the Circle S never-ending saga! Love ya', Uncle Jim!!
