“ I worked with Jamie for only six months, and during that short time I learned that she was in love with Jesus, and she adored her beautiful family. I can't say I was blessed to have had a close friendship with her, but I admired her so much. Her love for the Lord was obvious, and it was an inspiration to me and countless others. While I didn't know her well, I can say she loved her husband and children so very much.

*Your family is in my prayers, and I pray God bless,
Kim*
