“ its been months and I still miss him he is the best grandfather I could ask for he always cared for my mom and everyone his heart is the biggest heart ever he always showed love for everyone he loves hunting fishing and westerns if I had one more chance I would spend the whole day with him I would hunt fish watch every western he loves all the way through laugh and joke around when I was at the funeral service I haven't been able to cry in months and finally being able to cry felt so good and I finally felt like I could feel again I love whenever we would call him and call him "old man" and his reactions always made us all laugh and hearing my mother quote those moments instantly brought me to tears made me cry so much I didn't even want a tissue I wanted my tears to flow down I miss him so much I wish I can tell him I finally gave my life to Jesus I been brighter and happier lately and handling challenges better than I did before and I'm finally getting a job soon and I'm going to donate to the homeless and help people and spread the word of Jesus I miss you papa I love you so much I hope you and Jesus are having good talks together up in heaven I miss you
