“ Dear Family -

What sweet memories we have of our time in your home back in High School. Your mom and dad were always so very kind to us. I can remember having sleep overs with Cathy and sitting down to supper with the family. Your mom always cook these amazing dinners, the table was so full of choices that it looked like Thanksgiving everyday. I'm smiling and hope you are too! We had some good times.

She was a sweet sweet lady and made a difference in the lives of so many. God gave her a wonderful life and now she has gone to be with Him. There is so much peace in knowing that. Think about the laughter today and treasure it in your heart always.

My prayers are with you all.

*Love,
Lynnanne*
