“ JJ was a wonderful friend and father, and it is going to be hard for me to put into words how much I am going to miss him. He gave me three beautiful children, Chey, Kalin, and Alex. What is it that I remember when I think of JJ? I think everyone who knows him very well would agree with me on this. It was his sense of humor. I know he left lots of things undone and others that he never had a chance to start, for his life was just too short. I will always remember the vibrant man that had a lust for life. I know JJ is in a better place, and that we will see each other again someday, but I will miss him every day and keep him with me until we see each other again. I am proud to have known him and shared a part of his life. Goodbye my friend.

“ I remember you always telling me "Stop being afraid I am not going anywhere". You are such an amazing man, father, son, brother, and companion I was blessed to have for a short time. They say it gets easier to accept a person being gone with time. That's not the case with me. Seems to be getting harder. I set a fundraiser up for you when you was still here. It didn't earn much but I hope it was enough just to get your mom a nice meal out or something. I feel this is the only place I have to go and talk to you. I'm so sorry for letting you down. I hope your living it up where you are now. Happy late 35th birthday Justin! Not a day goes by I don't think of you and miss you emmensley! See you one day soon Tucker! All my love to heaven!

“ Today marks 6months since you had to go. So I wrote this poem for you Justin. You never said I'm leaving, You never said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it, And only God knows why. A million times I've needed you, A million times I've cried. If love alone could have saved you, You never would have died. In life I loved you dearly, In death I love you still. In my heart I hold a place, That only you can fill. I miss and love you so very much Justin!

“ Not a minute or day goes by I don't wonder where you are, how you are, are you near your loved ones, or far. I try to ease the pain of your absence with memories, no matter what I do at the end only tears remain because I can't be with you. Will I see you again one day? I guess only our maker knows if there will be a way to that day. I think of you always and miss your smile that would radiate for miles. If you hear me Justin, please stay near. I know I can't touch or see you, but sometimes I know I feel you. I miss you every second of everyday, that will NEVER go away.

“ 9months ago today you went away. To a place that all I know is so very far away. Part of me feels selfish, knowing here on earth in your last months you were in beyond any words to describe the most agonizing pain. Is it wrong that I'm glad you hurt no more? Is it wrong I always wanted you at my side all along? The deep laughter you would always have rings so loud in my ears, like the biggest bell, ringing in the memories! Then to moans and groans of that you endured never disappear, it's an ongoing nightmare. Many people tell me it's time to let go and move on. My heart tells me no matter where your at today, my heart tied to you is where I belong. You told me "It's just karma coming for me, I knew there would be this day". We all make mistakes, do wrong, some bigger than others, but none of us have the right to be that judge, there is only one and he is up above. I wish you could have seen yourself through my eyes. The gentle side, the loving side, the father, the son, the companion that always shined still in the end of time. I loved you from the moment your eyes hit mine, and I'll keep loving you until I meet you on the other side. ?~All My Love To Heaven above Justin~?

“ A year is approaching quickly since you had to move on. Everyday I hear your voice, your laughter. I can't pick the pepper up without seeing your face. Your in my thoughts, tears, and smiles daily. I had a gift given to me tonight Justin. You did good JJ. So very good! You are loved and missed by so many! Even though your far, please always stay close. I'll be loving and missing you always Jeremy Justin Tucker!?

“ My JJ It's 2weeks from a year that you have been gone from so many that love and miss you. It feels like yesterday still. I hold you in my heart, thoughts, and prayers daily. The selfish side of me still cries gut wrenching tears because I want you here, like so many do. Your way of laughing in the hard moments of life, the light in your eyes that only others saw. I miss every ounce and everything about you Jeremy Justin! I will forever keep the memory of you alive! I love you to forever!

“ Its hard to believe a year has almost passed since you were called away.
You were sick and tired and we all knew,
that God would soon come to take you.
You fought so hard, so very long,
but through the pain, you stayed strong.
We all knew there would come a day,
when God would come to carry you away.
It doesn't make it easier to say goodbye.
Hope you are enjoying Heaven you are missed down here.

“ My dear friend,
when I went outside late that night,
I saw a star burning ever so bright,
I knew you had left this earth to go up above,
To rest in peace and have eternal Love.
But the memories of our days together,
Will stay deep inside my heart forever.

“ Imagine if I was given one moment just a single slice of my past. I could hold it close forever, and that moment would always last. I'd put the moment in a safe, within my hearts abode. I could open it when I wanted and only I would know the code. I could choose a time that tried me, through everything I've done. I sat and thought about what moment, would always make me smile. One that would always push me, to walk that extra mile. If I'm feeling sad and low, if I'm struggling with what to do. I can go to my little safe, and watch my moments through. There are moments I can think of, that would lift my spirits everytime. The moments when you picked me up, when the road was to hard to climb. For me to only pick one moment, to cherish, save and keep, is proving really difficult, as I've gathered a heap! I've dug deep inside my heart, found the safe and looked inside, there was room for lots of moments, in fact hundreds if I tried. I'm building my own little library, embedded in my heart, for all the moments spent with you, before you had to part. I can open it up whenever I like, pick a moment and watch it through. My little library acts as a promise, I'll never ever forget you!! I have said it a million times, and I'll say it a billion more.....I love and miss you and always will until I see you again! All my love to heaven!!

“ Hey, Dad. I miss you. So much more than I thought I would. There have been so many times in my life where I think, "Hey, I should go see my dad this weekend"....and then remember that I can never do that again. You weren't really a big part of my life until I was older, but I cherish all the small amout of time that we spend together. You weren't always the easiest person to get along with, but I understand. You went through so much turmoil and pain in your life and you stayed so strong for me and Kalin and Alex. I love you so much and I wish I could have gotten the chance to know you better. I love you dad. More than anything.
