“ Jerry was one of the finest individuals I've ever known. He looked out for others, was a faithful man of God that was shown in his Christian life. You could always count on him to do the right thing whatever it was that needed to be done. He was a great blessing to me and a great honor to have known him. May the Lord come soon!

“ Jerry was a neighbor most of my life, and his family was always an inspiration to me. I have never heard nothing but good and never a negative comment. He was always a worker in our little community. Most of all he loved his family and God.
